Pray for the TUMI Expansion Project!

Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."
~ Matthew 9.37-38 (ESV)

With a sincere faith and fervent heart, pray to the Lord for . . .

- God's blessing on these efforts to raise up an army of effective, indigenous leaders who will labor among the unreached urban poor across America and the around the world

- Many new partners in the Great Commission for language translation

- Direction in finding the proper technologies to use for resource translation

- Favor with urban church leaders, churches, and movements to partner for the sake of advancing the Kingdom

- Courage for the hundreds of TUMI students to initiate new ministries, plant churches, and launch movements for the sake of Christ among the urban poor

- New, open doors with missions agencies and societies who are interested in equipping indigenous laborers around the world

- Competent, available theological editors to proof our rough resource translations

- God's favor with wardens and the justice departments of the various states across America, and in partner nations

- God's wisdom as we select vendors to help in our retooling of our infrastructure for the exponential growth of the expansion

- Funding partners who help us obtain the resources to both translate and produce our resources for leadership development programming

- New staff who possess the proper skills, experience, and capacities needed to sustain and grow our operations and expansion efforts

- Ongoing protection against the enemy's schemes and interference with the project

- Endurance, perseverance, faithfulness, and humility as we pursue our goals together

The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. ~ James 5.17 (ESV)
